

Dana Rekow
Client Advisor

Dana Rekow joined Laird Norton Tyee in August 2009 as a client services manager responsible for the ongoing improvement of clients' experiences with the firm, as well as supporting its business development efforts.

He has more than 20 years of investment and accounting experience, including the past 15 years in various senior and management roles at Russell Investments. He recently served as a Senior Client Executive for the Retirement Sales division at Russell, and he also was a Regional Director working primarily with Investment Advisors across the United States at the firm.

Prior to joining Russell, Rekow was an accountant manager at the Seattle office of Deloitte & Touche.

Rekow is a Northwest native, graduating from Seattle Pacific University with a bachelor's in accounting. Dana loves travel, reading, golf and music of all types. Dana is involved in a number of music groups and loves helping lead worship at Highlands Community Church in Renton.