Philip G. Knell
Client Advisor

Phil Knell is a client advisor with more than 25 years of experience in the financial advisory field. He has extensive experience delivering comprehensive investment management, personal and charitable trust services, and personal financial planning services to his high net worth clients. As an advisor, Phil leads a client service team to provide solutions and ensure clients progress toward their goals, and adds local internal and external subject matter experts to the team as needed.

Prior to joining Laird Norton Tyee, Phil was a senior client manager at Bank of America, joining the bank in 2000 to provide comprehensive financial solutions to the bank's high net worth clients. Previously, he was with U.S. Bank for 10 years, during which time he gained experience and expertise in a wide range of financial advisory services, including personal financial planning, trust services, and investment management services for institutional relationships.

Phil has a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Washington and holds the Certified Financial Planner™ professional and Certified Retirement Services Professional designations.
